Your monthly update on WMS News and Events

Chairman's Foreword:

"I am very pleased to announce that Wayland Men's Shed have been awarded funding from Norfolk Community Foundation through the 'Connecting Older People Fund'. to contribute towards the continued running costs of the Wayland Men's Shed, including the regular workshops, social groups, events, and outings. This is a clear recognition of the valuable service and support that we are providing for men in our community.

We are very grateful to the foundation and will be reporting how this has made a difference in future reports. I believe that we are already making a difference to so many lives, not only the members but also their friends and families. Every week I witness the gathering together of members who so enjoy the camaraderie of others whilst playing games or just chatting over a cuppa and a biscuit or two. This is, of course, due to the continued hard work of the committee and all the members."

Main Social Room:

"The Main Social Room is where the larger part of our membership congregates to catch up with fellow shedders over a cup of tea/coffee. Groups develop for a game of cards, dominoes, or such like although this is not all that goes on. Other groups may sit chatting about whatever comes up or perhaps read a magazine. All are a friendly bunch and welcome other members to join in the games, conversation, and banter.

After signing in, the Computer and Workshop shedders will drift off to the outbuilding to take up their interests."

Members are reminded that it is important to come to the social room to sign in and pay subs."

So, for a change of scenery and company why not take yourself out there to see what's on offer, you might be pleasantly surprised. BASS – ‘Beer Appreciation Shed Society’

Thank for all your feedback so far. This is very much a work in progress.
Watch this space for January 2026.

“My proposal is that we establish a group of like-minded individuals who enjoy both the taste of the odd Beer and the social event of drinking with friends. Please don’t get me wrong this is not about getting slaughtered on the demon drink but put simply it will be a genuine group of mates who enjoy a similar interest... in beer(s). Initially my plan would be to kick off the group at the Belgian Monk in Norwich.

<https://www.thebelgianmonk.com/drinks/beer-menu/>

They say... Belgium, a beer paradise, is home to over 1600 plus different beers from some 220 breweries. It’s known as the land of good living. Superb beer, sublime chocolate and oh, the Mannekin Pis. We strive to source beers that we feel our customers will both appreciate and enjoy. Remember, no beer is exceptional unless someone wants to drink it! We, however, have many exceptionals!

The Group will be open to Members, their Wives, their Partners, their Friends.

So, if you like the idea of a ‘BASS’ Group for Wayland Men’s Shed – please let me know and I will make plans to get the group up and running.”

Not just beer... not just Europe it’s where you will genuinely find more than 1,600 of the world’s most delicious beers. Their selection of beers is huge, including Stouts, Lagers, Fruit Beers, and low/non-alcoholic varieties. Choose something new or buy one of your old favourites, be it English, German, Belgian, Rest of World... I bet they will have it, just make your purchase and take away. If you have been before I think you will agree it’s a place to behold. If you have never been then, and you enjoy a beer, then you really should make a visit and if so, come to the second BASS (Beer Appreciation Shed Society) outing.”

Shanties at the Shed:

“Where has 2025 gone? It seems as we grow older the days, weeks, and months fly past, this year has been no exception. The crew have had a busy schedule.

By the end of this month, we would have performed 14 gigs throughout the year, and we already have 3 booked for 2026. There was one cancellation that needs rearranging, and in August we had our first gig at the Queen’s Hall for which all available tickets were sold. For this appearance we had almost a complete turn out of crew members. In September we returned to St Mary’s church in Watton for another successful show and we’ve also performed at St Peter’s church Swainsthorpe, Dorrington House and St Peter & St Paul’s church in Griston to name but a few.

This month we have three gigs the first of which was the Women’s Institute at Pickenham. The performance went very well, and the WI members joined in where possible. There was an opportunity to sit and mingle afterwards, and we enjoyed the kind of fayre you would normally associate with the WI. It would be true to say we were well looked after. On Saturday 13th we have an appearance at East Harling Bowls Club, and we then end our year at Watton Society on Wednesday 17th.

As mentioned at the beginning 2025 has been a very busy year and one of change, with Wayne Rutter taking over as crew lead or ‘Captain’ and has brought his own, slightly different approach to the crew, and John Pepper “JP” has become our new ‘Maestro’ and keeps us all in time...sometimes!

All that remains is for me to wish everyone a Happy Christmas and a wonderful New Year.”

The Music Group:

"The group had its biggest day ever, with 21 members attending. Everyone got to play their choice of song, but this filled up the entire 2-and-a-half-hour session, with no more room at all. I think we have reached our limit in what can be played within the time available, and we will need to consider extending the session or limiting the number of songs played. Hopefully, it will be the former, but the jury is still out as I write this.

The theme of “Religion” proved to be one that provided a very wide range of song choices, from classical music to heavy rock and almost all points in between. It was also a first for the group, as “The Lord’s Prayer” which came third featured one of our members, Barrie. He is also now a Shantyman, and the track had him in a previous singing role from his London days. I’m not sure we will have this happening again any time soon!

The top five tunes were:

1st "I Will Follow Him" from "Sister Act", picked by Ray, on 7.7
 =2nd "Oh Night Divine" by Nat King Cole, picked by Malcolm on 7.6
 =2nd "The Lord's Prayer" by Vauxhall Men's Choir, picked by Barrie on 7.6
 3rd "Pia Jesu" by Kathryn Jenkins and Andrew Lloyd-Webber, picked by Roger, on 7.55
 4th "It's Only Make Believe" by Conway Twitty, picked by Robin, on 7.5
 5th "Heaven Knows" by First Aid Kit, picked Graeme, on 7.30

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday January 7th, when the theme will be "Transport and Travel". I've picked this as it is clearly one of our top picks for next year, but the remaining list needs a little more work as a few members are yet to give me their views. As you can see, we are getting ever more popular, and it is good to see everyone getting there by 9.30 so we can make a good early start.

We also had the final Music Quiz of 2025 after the session, which was set by yours truly and had a Xmas music theme. Eight members formed two teams of 4, and fought hard to beat each other, but in the end, it ended as a draw as both teams got a creditable 39/50. A nice result for the time of year!

We always have a good time and lots of good-natured chat, so if you enjoy music of any kind why not come along? You don't even have to bring along something to play if you don't want to, as you are more than welcome to just come and listen to our many and varied selections."

Interested? Contact Dave Cooper – Music club lead - email: dwanddrc@gmail.com

Treasurers note: Please ensure you have been signed in, and your subs are in the tub provided.

I'm game if you are:

"The next meeting will be on Monday 19th January 2026. Please feel free to bring along any family, friends, or neighbours.

If you stay after the morning session then please be aware there is NO bar food available on Mondays, please bring a light lunch with you.

Games available to play or learn include Mexican Train, Mahjong, Sequence, Rumikub, Beziique, 500 rummy, Contract, Nomination and Solo whist, Crib, Backgammon, Yahtzee, Halma, Othello, Chess, Draughts, Nine Mans Morris, Dominoes, 5's & 3's. Feel free to bring along a game of your own to tempt us. It would be good to see more you there, having a good afternoon of laughter and banter."

Note: A £2 session fee will be charged with free tea, coffee, and biscuits available. Members attending both the shed session and the games group will be required to pay for both sessions.

Editor's note on groups:

"Do you have an idea for a similar group? For example: A walking group, a book or cycling club, maybe a common hobby or interest then please let a committee member know. Such groups will be fully supported by the committee but arranged and run solely by the interested members."

Note: "A group does not have to be several members; you may just find one other like-minded individual to start with, and others may well join you later."

The Shutterists:

This month sees the return of Stewart Haile as Shutterists lead, a safe pair of hands for sure. I also given him additional space to lay out his stall with next year's schedule.

About us:

"We are an artistic group with an un-written modus operandi of "For fun"

The Shutterists activities include;

1. Regular outings to photogenic places – we have logged more than 60 visits
2. Learning to improve our camera handling and photographic techniques
3. Embracing other creative artistic media

The Shutterists allows all camera types, including phones/tablets. However, as we embrace other creative techniques, cameras are not a pre-requisite, as for example, one of our keen members will attend outings with his charcoal and sketch pad. 'Shutterists' outings generally take in a coffee, food and even the odd beer – it's a social trip as much as a photographic / artistic one and we all share friendly banter."

For November:

The group had two main events;

Outing to Horsey Gap to photograph the Seals

2026 Planning Meeting

For December:

The outing will be to photograph Christmas Lights

The Shed Journal

The November Outing:

Location: Horsey Gap – approximately 46 miles from Watton
Date: 18th November
Group members: Al Middleton, John Pepper, Neil Rowe & Stewart Haile

"Al kindly drove and we left Watton around 9am, heading to our breakfast pitstop at Charlottes Café in Stalham. Highly recommended. Post Code: NR12 9AZ.

Once fed and watered, we drove to the car park at Horsey Gap. It was just before 10:30 and was already busy with people hoping to see the Seals and their newly born pups.

Note: Car park costs £4.00 for 2 hours / £6.20 for 4 hours.

The weather was glorious... bright blue clear skies, cold and breezy but warm in the sun. Horsey Gap was really well organised and managed by many Seal Wardens who were there not only to protect the Seals but also help with visitors to get the most out of their visit. The high sand dunes were roped off from the beach and sensibly there was no access onto the beach where the Seals and their Pups could be clearly seen. According to the Wardens, so far on this stretch of the beach there had been 749 pups born this winter (so far).

The four of us walked upon the Dunes and made our way to some space, in order to set up our tripods and get the images that each of us strived for. Initially the cold was tolerable, the warming sun taking the bite out of the breeze, however after about 2 hours we felt we had the shots we wanted and returned to the car. That, and the cold, and the thought of a pub lunch, being the deciding factors.

We travelled less than 10 minutes down the road to where we had booked our Pub Lunch. The pub chosen was The Nelson's Head in Horsey. Another establishment that we all would Highly recommend Post Code: NR29 4AD

During lunch we decided that as there were only 4 Shutterists – we each could submit 2 images for the 'Terry Knight Award' which is presented monthly for the best photo of the day. Chosen by an independent judge."

Blakeney Point – 4th July 2018

Terry Knight (left), Steve Franz (middle), and Stewart Haile

Sadly, Terry passed away in May 2019, but the Shutterists honour his memory with the 'Terry Knight Award'

Thus, for the November outing, our 8 images were submitted to our esteemed Judge – for this trip it was Malcolm Trayhorn and the results of his deliberations were as follows:

A huge congratulations to Al, securing both 1st & 2nd place.

Sony camera with a prime lens

Al subsequently received The Terry Knight Trophy

Well done to Neil too with his image from his Sony music centre

SILVER

“Are You

BRONZE

“A Slight

A big thank you to our Judge. A difficult decision to make from the 8 images submitted but overall, the right choice for the winning entry.

2026 Planning Meeting:

On 24th November, at the Sports Centre, 12x Shutterists convened to make and agree plans for the year ahead.

Currently our group has 16 members in total, but not all could make the meeting.

Which was probably lucky for them as it was a 'Death by PowerPoint' presentation.

In brief, the meeting hoped to achieve:

- Agree a Monthly Calendar for outings during 2026
- A want to win the 'Terry Knight' Award
- Agree a new monthly challenge
- Embracing other media
- Discuss our photographic goals
- And finally have a Shutterists plan for 2026

I am pleased to confirm that 90% of the above was detailed and agreed

As a taster, here are our initial plans for monthly visits next year:

January	Norwich Cathedral
February	The Shuttleworth Collection / Biggleswade
March	Lavenham
April	Blickling Estate / National Trust
May	Southwold - Harbour and Streets
June	Orford / National Trust
July	Constable Country (Flatford Mill)
August	Snetterton - Motor Bikes
September	Duxford
October	Bressingham
November	Cambridge - River and Backstreets
December	Christmas Lights / Wells

If you would like to hear more about the Shutterists 2026 plans the come along and find any member of our group.

Gastro Jaunts around Norfolk Number 28:

“I know this is going to look an advert for this restaurant, and I have mentioned it a few times, but it is one of my favourites. We go to Norwich quite often because Chas really likes Paul the butcher’s stall and the fishmongers on the Market. Paolo’s restaurant is only a short walk away at 1 St Giles street just opposite the Town Hall. It is quite a small cozy place, and you can be assured of a quiet, civilised lunch. I think it’s a husband-and-wife team that run it.

The waitress, I think she said her name was Olga, very timidly admitted to being Russian, is charm personified, very welcoming, polite, and efficient. The food is freshly cooked in the open kitchen by the very skilled chef. We shared our usual very fresh whitebait starter; the portions are generous. We then both had a very nice chicken breast in a mushroom sauce with fresh vegetables, it was actually three chicken breasts, and I had to leave the third one which is very unusual for me]. We needed something to help our digestion after this so shared an affogato (vanilla ice cream with espresso coffee poured over it). A lovely lunch, we then got the bus home, long live our free bus passes! Authentic Italian restaurant in Norwich | Paolos Restaurant.”

Protect your land and property:

“I recently saw a piece on TV regarding a man who, unexpectedly received a letter stating that a loan had been raised in his name using his property as collateral without his knowledge. The loan was for £495,000 and the repayments were to be £10,000 per calendar month starting immediately. Somehow someone had gotten his details enabling them to commit this fraud with no real recourse.

Thankfully, there is a way to help prevent this happening to you and it’s a straightforward process.

It’s called the ‘Property Alert Service’ and can be found on the government website.

Follow this link: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/property-alert>

You just create a simple account then add up to 10 properties (these can be your own or your relatives) The service will inform you if either a loan is taken out on any of the properties you have listed OR any of your listed properties has been put on the market.

It’s well worth doing, it took me less than 10 minutes, so do yourself a favour and sign up.”

Grumpy Old Man Says!

"Bah humbug, It's Christmas time again. Gos hates this time of year as there's so many things to not look forward to. First of all, there's all that palaver about getting presents, which he really hates doing. He never knows what to buy anyone, all the shops are too busy, and on top of that they're all playing the same old Christmas songs on a loop. Everyones supposed to be happy and cheerful, but this ain't something that comes easily to Gos. After he's got the presents, they have to be covered with that 'orrible Christmas wrapping paper. Why do they make it so bldy thin? Gos always seems to rip it at a crucial point. He then has to go and ask Mrs Gos to help, which makes him feel really small when she looks at him as if he's a right numpty."

Then the Christmas tree and decorations have to be dug out of the loft, which is always Gos's job, despite him having knees that rattle as he walks. The amount of crap stored up there is unbelievable, who puts it up there for gawds sake? Once it's down, Mrs Gos won't let him anywhere near the tree until it's all done, and then he's allowed to plug the lights in. Of course, they don't all work so he has to spend ages working out why. Gos doesn't like these newfangled LED lights, he loves the ones with those tiny little bulbs that look like candles. These remind him of when he was a nipper, when it was all candles and crepe paper.

When the big day arrives, all of the Gos sprogs come round for Christmas dinner and bring their spoilt little sproglets. These take great delight in showing off to Gos their latest phone or expensive toys that have probably meant the sprogs have chucked a load of money on their cards. Guess who they'll turn to for help in the New Year – the poor old Bank of Gos, just when he was getting some money stashed away for a nice holiday abroad away with Mrs Gos. It'll end up being the caravan at Hemsby again if it's still there by next summer.

Mrs Gos loves to do a bleedin' great Turkey that just about fits in the cooker, and guess what – the sproglets don't like Brussel sprouts and want Turkey Twizzlers and chips instead, ungrateful buggers. No, the Turkey will get left over as usual, and it'll be Turkey Curry, Turkey sandwiches, Turkey this and Turkey that until Gos is so fed up of it he could scream. What was wrong with bread and dripping eh? When they've all gone home the house is like a pigsty and guess who has to clear it all up, yep, Gos, as Mrs Gos is fast akip on the sofa. Mind you, Gos was dozing most of the afternoon, especially when "The Great Escape" was on. It was lovely while it lasted.....roll on 2026!"

Testimonials:

"You may recall from a message that I sent out recently, that I was asking for testimonials showing what the Men's Shed means to you. This just needs to be a paragraph or two which reflects the worth of being a member, especially in combatting loneliness and assisting with well-being. Thank you to those who have already responded and for the words of support. All this information helps, especially as evidence in justifying our existence and for securing funding. The Shed Journal

Stay safe online:

 1. Don't make yourself a target, keep a low profile, and keep information on social media about yourself to an absolute minimum, take the threats seriously and protect your identity.

2. Don't put any embarrassing information, photos, messages, or facts about yourself on any website, things that you could later come to regret, or end up looking stupid. Don't put the details of what you are doing, where you are going, or if you are going away from home, on any social media sites.

3. Don't respond to, reply, or click on anything you get sent which is suspicious, by replying you acknowledge you are there, and you could get malware onto your computer or device, for further attacks against you.

Questions to ask yourself when you get any messages or emails.

- Do you know the person or organisation who sent it?
- Were you expecting it?
- Does it look real?
- Are there spelling mistakes or poor English?
- Is it asking for confidential information?

Unless you are sure that you can really trust it, DO NOT open, or click on ANY attachments or web links contained in it.

4. When browsing web sites on the internet, beware of items or links that you can click-on, and NEVER download anything from websites that are suspect, or are new to you, or which you were not expecting. Ignore ALL pop-up windows or messages from the Internet saying that your computer might be infected, there is NO WAY that anyone can tell that remotely, it is a scam.

5. Make sure your anti-virus software is up to date on your computer, and back-up your personal data regularly to a removeable disk/device.

6. NEVER pay any ransom if you are attacked, seek help from an IT professional immediately and do report it to the police. There is little chance you will ever get your computer or data restored even if you do pay, and you will never get your money back!

7. NEVER let anyone, whoever they say they are, have remote access to your computer, it is a scam. NO genuine telecom, internet or software company will ever call you about security.

8. Have good quality, easy to remember, but secure passwords and protect them. Use words that mean something to you, but are not obvious, and could never be associated with you, or your immediate family.
